

Ford Romania Intern Program Internship Workplan

Function Name:	Finance	Supervisor Name:	O. Tomita
Department Name:	Controller's Office	Supervisor CDSID:	Otomita
Assignment Location:	Craiova	Supervisor Position#:	Cost Control Vehicle Ops.

Project Description

The student will be part of a cross functional project designed to assure a robust process for registering and control the nonproduction parts that were repaired.

Measurable Objectives

- The new procedure has to provide a better control of NPM repaired parts ;
- Procedure needs to include graphical presentations of the process, to provide meaningful information and to be structured in such manner to be easily understood.

Expected Major Contributions

- Understand the current process, terms and definitions ;
- Collect relevant data/information for accurate assessment ;
- Identify weakness and lack of control ;
- At the end of program the intern will be able to deliver a presentation of her/his project.

Expected Benefits to Intern

- Gain experience working in a real Finance environment, getting a strong background in the methodologies required for successfully analyzing and synthesizing financial information.
- Gain the opportunity to learn how to cooperate within cross function departments in an international successful company.
- Gaining hands on understanding of how different areas impact a company financial standing, learning to evaluate the exposure to operations.

Intern Qualifications (schooling, work experience, major)

- Must be studying for Economics or Business related degree.
- Good English and MS Excel skills required.
- Demonstrate ability to apply critical thinking skills to important issues.