University of Craiova

Landmarks

Geographical position

The University of Craiova is the main high profile institution of higher education in the historical region of Oltenia (at the territorial-administrative level, it comprises 5 counties) in the South-West of Romania, bordered by the Danube river and the Sub-Carpathians. Craiova is the largest city in Oltenia and the sixth in the country in point of population, thus offering a rich cultural experience.

Status quo

Currently, the University of Craiova is a comprehensive structure, including 12 faculties, one autonomous academic department and 45 research centers. The University of Craiova takes pride in its infrastructure (one main building, 4 university campuses, 14 student halls of residence, 4 research and development units, 1 central library and 14 branch libraries, approximately 300 lecture theatres and seminar rooms, 255 laboratories, 1 university club, etc.) and in the qualified human resource (900 teaching staff members, 1000 non-teaching staff members and administrative and maintenance staff members), as a warrant for the quality of the services provided to the 20,000 students and to the community in general.

The University Main Building

The University Main Building, located in 13 Alexandru Ioan Cuza Street, was designed by Ion Socolescu and erected in 1890. The building pertains to neoclassicism and was, successively, the headquarters of the Palace of Justice and of the People's Council of the Oltenia Region. After 1972, a new wing was added in harmony with the original building to serve the University Library.
